PANELS

THE REPRESENTATION BOOKSHELF: DIVERSITY THROUGH COMICS

11am | Mary Nelson Room

Presented by Comics Education Outreach
As our nation becomes more diverse, so has the face of our classrooms...and the comics' industry. This panel of educators and librarians will discuss the ever-changing climate of comics and what you can do to diversify your comics' bookshelf!

IT'S MORPHIN' TIME! POWER RANGERS: A HISTORY

12:30pm | Mary Nelson Room

Presented by Carey Anderson
The history and origins of Power Rangers, including what to watch if you liked the movie.

PERFORMERS

CHICAGO LIGHTSABER ACADEMY

10am | Gazebo

Bridging the gap between martial arts and the Star Wars universe, Tandang Garimot Martial Arts & Wellness teaches participants of all ages to duel lightsabers in a fun, family friendly way. Bring your own lightsaber if you can!

KLINGON POP WARRIOR

4pm | Lobby

Lieutenant jembom vestai-toQqul and her guitar-slinging Red Shirt have traveled across quadrants to bring glory and honor to the Klingon Empire performing popular songs in the original Klingon. After another successful Kickstarter, the second Klingon pop album will soon be available.
